

NEW HOME CHECKLIST

HOME INSURANCE

Before your solicitor will let you complete on your mortgage and buy your house, you'll need good Buildings Insurance in place. Insuring with a reputable provider is really important so speak to us about how our partners at L&G can help.

TELL YOUR BANK

It's common that your mortgage won't be with your current bank. But your bank really needs to know where you live. So let them know your new address ASAP.

PROTECTION

Your adviser will have discussed all your options with regards to protecting your mortgage and income. If you didn't arrange any

UTILITIES

Speak to your internet and communications providers early, as well as your gas and electric providers. It can take several days to get things moved over. Don't get left out in the cold on this one.

REGISTER TO VOTE

Getting on the electoral role is really important for lots of reasons, but especially when it comes to your credit score. Banks often check your address history when applying for future products.

BE FLEXIBLE

Moving house can be stressful. Things might not always go to plan or exactly how you expected them to. Be flexible and allow things to change when they need to.
